Christian Aid Coffee Morning - you are invited to join our Day Centre members at Beulah on Thursday 9th May for coffee from 10.30am to help us raise money for Christian Aid.

Donations of cakes, jigsaw puzzles, books and other items to sell would be greatly appreciated. Please speak to Amanda Pragnell for more information.

Church Garden: we would like to create a working party for a one-off effort to get our lovely garden, including the memorial roses which are special to a lot of us at Beulah, up to a maintainable level. Moving forward, once the garden is on a good level it will be much easier to maintain and could perhaps warrant a Gardening Club to be formed if there is any interest; this may or may not include refreshments! Please let the office know if you could help with the initial clearance, any help would be greatly appreciated.

Our Senior pastor, Rev David Lockwood is currently on sabbatical until June 30th. Sabbatical Program

A reminder of our senior pastor, David Lockwood's sabbatical program: he will be spending his time on a particular area of research: interviewing church leaders and asking questions about leading in evangelism, walking alongside new Christians and how churches integrate new people into the life of the church. Leaders from Baptist churches and other denominations from various parts of the country, where the church is growing with new Christians, will be sharing their experiences. David will also be attending the Leadership Conference in Albert Hall, London from 6th May - 8th May.

He will be visiting church leaders in Warrington, Leeds and Manchester - 9th - 14th May / and Kent - 15th May.

Then will be at the Worth Abbey Retreat from 10th - 14th June.
